Saturday, August 24. 1717.

From the Hague Courant, dated Aug. 27.

Gibraltar, July 23.

BY the continual Cruizing of the four British Men of War that are in these Seas, the Pirates of Sallee are so restrain'd, that they dare not appear abroad; and the Trade thither remains still shut up.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 28.

Madrid, Aug. 10. We have Advice from Barcelona, that the Fleet design'd for the Levant set Sail the 24th and 31st of last Month. They write from Lisbon, that some Difficulties are arisen concerning the Habits and the Marks of Dignity, which the new Archbishop of one half of the City, and the Canons of the Chapel Royal, have begun to wear; wherein 'tis pretended they have exceeded their new Privileges. According to the News from Africa, Admiral Cornwall, who commands a Squadron of British Men of War, and is gone to Morocco with the Character and necessary Powers, to treat of Peace, was enter'd into the Negotiation with the Ministers of that Prince.

Venice, Aug. 7. Advices arrived from Dalmatia, inform us, that a great Body of Regular Troops and National Militia were advanc'd to the Fort of Muski, situate upon the Frontier, in a very pleasant Country, and that they hoped to be Masters of it without much Difficulty, because a great Number of the Forces the Turks had on that side were gone to Hungary. 'Tis reported, that after that Enterprize is finished, General Mocenigo would embark to sail to the Mouths of Cattaro, with the General Officers, and a Body of Troops, to join those that were assembled, together with many Ships laden with Ammunition, which seem to be design'd for some other important Project. The Sieur Vitturi Captain of the Golf, is returned to Dalmatia, after having convoy'd the Merchant Fleet going to the Fair of Sinigaglia, and met none of the Dulcignote Corsairs. The Electoral Prince of Saxony stops at Verona, to wait for Orders from the King of Poland his Father, before he proceeds for Vienna.

From the Hague Courant, dated Aug. 27.

Venice, Aug. 14. On Tuesday last we receiv'd an Express by the Way of Otranto, with Letters from M. Capello Captain of the Galeasses, dated July 25, from Zante, and from M. Loredano, dated at Corfu the 28th, with News of a great Victory obtain'd by the Fleet of the Republick over that of the Turks, the 19th of last Month; wherein besides two Men of War and six Transports laden with Soldiers, Ammunition and Provisions, which fell into our Hands the Day before, they took, burnt or sunk 18 of the Enemy's Sultana's. [The Particulars here related, being the same with those in our last, we omit them.] Yesterday arrived a Felucca, sent by our Provéditore General in Dalmatia, bringing with them seven Turkish Colours, and a Pair of Kettle Drums. The said Provéditore writes, that he having attack'd Imuschi, but not made a Breach, he caus'd his Men to scale the Walls with Sword in Hand, and thereby took the Town, and then began to undermine the Castle; the Turkish Governour seeing no Hopes of Relief, demanded to capitulate, which being agreed to, the Conditions granted to the Garrison were. That they should march out with what each Soldier could carry under his Arm; and that our Troops took Possession of the Place the first Instant, and found therein, besides some Pieces of Cannon, a great deal of Provision and Ammunition. A Body of the Enemy's Troops of 6000 in Number, most Horse, which lay in the open Country, and was a greater Force than our Detachment, durst not stir during the Time of our Siege, which lasted but 3 Days.

Genoa, Aug. 7. On Saturday arrived here a Felucca from Sardignia, with Letters from the Viceroy of Sardignia for the Court of Vienna. The People on Board thereof relate, that all the Places of the Island, where a Descent can be made, are very much strengthen'd. That the City of Cagliari is also put into a very good State of Defence. And the Viceroy had sent an Express to Naples, to demand some more Troops. We hear from Port Mahon, that the Governour there was also upon his Guard, that he had sent to call in 13 English Men of War that are in the Mediterranean Sea, and had dispatch'd an Advice-Boat to the Coast of Catalonia, to bring him Advice what Course the Spanish Squadron takes.

From the Paris News-Letter.

Genoa, Aug. 12. Last Night arrived here a Neapolitan Ship, which touch'd at Sardignia; they have landed an Express from the Court of Vienna going to Milan, whither he carries Dispatches to the Governour, for him to hasten the Levies that he is order'd to make. This Express has also brought Letters for the Senate, and 'tis believ'd they contain Demands of Sums of Money. The same Ship landed likewise another Express at Leghorne, who was to proceed with Diligence to Florence, where 'tis said he is to demand 40000 Ducats of the Great Duke.

From the Paris Gazette.

Brussels, Aug. 22. The Preparations for the Solemnity of the Oath of Fidelity, which the States of this Country are to take to the Emperour, continue to be made here, at Ghent, and elsewhere, the principal Circumstances of the Form thereof being already regulated. The Differences with the Bodies of Tradesmen are not yet terminated, and many Assemblies have been held upon that Subject.

Paris, Aug. 28. On the 21st the two Eschevins who have been chosen by the Corporation of the City, took the usual Oath before the King. The 23d the Deputies of the States of Languedoc, had Audience of the King, and presented the Acts of their Assembly. The 25th being the Festival of St. Louis, the Procession of the Carmelites of the Great Convent, which is annually made on that Day, was perform'd with the usual Ceremonies. The Hundred Swiflers, and the King's Trompets and Hautbois, accompanied the blessed Loaves; And the Prevôt des Merchands and the Eschevins, follow'd in the Procession. The Religious celebrated High Mass in the Chapel of the Tuilleries, and his Majesty assisted at it. The same Day the French Academy celebrated the Festival in the Chapel of the Louvre; where the old Bishop of Frejus, the King's Preceptor, who is one of the 40 Members, celebrated the Mass, the Abbot Prevost pronounc'd the Panegyrick of the Saint with much Eloquence. And in the Evening the Academy made the Distribution of the Prizes of Eloquence and Poetry; the former whereof was given to the Abbot Colin, and the latter to the Sieur Gacon. The Academy of Sciences, and that of the Belles Lettres, celebrated the Festival in the Church of the Priests of the Oratory, and the Abbot de Ballionde pronounc'd to them the Elogium of the Saint.

Copenhagen, August 17.

WE want four Posts from Norway, neither have we had any Ship, either Man of War or Merchant, from thence all this Time, to learn any thing from that Country: Which is what occasions Speculations among the Curious, and even among the more Judicious. But the Wind having been good for these three Days past, we flatter our selves of having some News in a Day or two. The four Transport-Ships that are return'd into the Sound, have upon the pressing Instances of the Commanders, been furnish'd with all Necessaries; and we shall embark the Troops as soon as ever the Wind is fair. 'Tis suppos'd that the great Transport is duly arriv'd there, seeing we hear nothing to the contrary. 'Tis spoken as assured, that the Russians are fortifying themselves in the Isle of Gothland, and that they will keep a Squadron there for maintaining a Commerce. The Confederate Fleet remain still at Kuckbock, and expect every Hour the Cruisers to bring them Advice of the Condition of the Enemy in the Baltick. We hear that the King has sent to fetch the Water from the Spaw, to make use of them in Holstein.

Hamburg, Aug. 20. The Emisaries of Prince Ragotski whom the Imperial Resident has caused to be arrested upon the Elbe, are still kept at Staden, one whereof is named Charrier and the other l'Hôpital; and they have it in Charge to report to the Grand Signior and C. Berezeni the Resolution of Ragotski upon the Propositions the Turkish Aga has made to him. 'Tis said there are several other Frenchmen in the same Design, who are expected, but Orders are already given for arresting them upon the Elbe. And among them there is one who has by Surprise obtain'd the Czar's Passport. The Czar is expected by Water, and Preparations are already made at Staden for his Reception. The King of Denmark having arriv'd at Gluckstadt at 9 at Night, and setting out early next Morning for Itzehoe, the Magistrates had not the Opportunity of making him the usual Present.

Hague, Aug. 24. On Wednesday last Mr. Whitworth the British Minister presented a Memorial to their High Mightinesses, wherein he insists, by express Order of his Court, that the States cause Baron Gortz to depart immediately out of the Dominions of the United Provinces. The City of Amsterdam having made last Tuesday a Representation of a Naval Fight, in Presence of the Czar and all his Court, some Fusils were fired with Hail shot upon the Czar's Yatch, whereby not only several Persons about him were wounded, but even his Majesty's own Cloaths were pierced. And afterwards when he was retired to his Cabin, his Windows were broken with Stones; but it could not be discover'd by whom. Young Count Welling, who is returned from Bremen, is daily expected here; and

'tis said, he is to reside with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sweden to the States General.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from France.

From the Paris News-Letter.

Paris, Sept. 1. Letters from Barcelona of the 17th past advise, that they continue to work with great Application upon the Fortifications of the Outworks of that City and Citadel, as also upon the new Fort call'd St. Philip. That there are still in that Port three Gallies and two Frigates, and that they every Day expected seven Men of War, three Gallies, two Bomb-Gallies, and two Frigates, which are lately sail'd from the Ports of Cartagena and Malaga. And 'tis added, that they are preparing there 30 Transport-ships, and are collecting a great Quantity of Corn into the Magazines.

They write from Marseilles the 19th, that the Turkish Envoy, of whom we have spoken, is arriv'd there in an English Ship from Constantinople; he sent away one of his Interpreters half an Hour since, for this Place, to give Notice of his Arrival; and after he had repos'd himself, set forward on Horseback for Paris; whither he comes with a Commission from the Grand Seignior. The same Letters add, that a Genoese Ship was arriv'd there from Palermo, the Master whereof reports, that the Spanish Squadron after having ranged on the Coasts of the Kingdom of Naples, were come to an anchor in the Road of Messina, to take in the Refreshments they wanted, after which they would sail immediately.

London, August 26.

On Thursday last M. d'Ibberville Envoy Extraordinary of France, had his private Audience of Leave of his Majesty, to which he was introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and afterwards had a private Audience of Leave of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales in their several Apartments.

And that they will take in the said Orders, and give Credit for the said Annuities as fast as they shall receive from the said Managers and Directors, Duplicates of the Subscription Books, of which Publick Notice will be given, so as the Persons subscribing may have the said Credit from Time to Time, and be enabled to make Transfers of their Annuities as their Occasions may require.

AT the Water-Theatre of the late Ingenious Mr. Wintian, this Evening between 5 and 6 o'clock, several have appointed to meet, to take the many Lists of Liquor drawn out of several Casks, which will be like Cakes, after playing Water: When the Barrel hath perform'd its part, it is broke in Pieces, leaving a Flame of Fire, which burns in the Water. Venus is there with her flaming Heart playing Water, afterwards she appears with the Golden Apple given her by Paris on Mount Ida, the Graces crowning her with Garlands attended by Cupids, Doves and Swans: Apollo is by with the Cupid that wounded him; Daphne is changed to a Tree, and Narcissus to Flowers: Jupiter, after being a Swan, is with his Thunder and Lightning; with other Metamorphoses, Nymphs from Hills, Woods, Groves, and Fountains attend, while passing Streams are springing from Banks of sweet Flowers, which falls into delightful Cascades, mingling with Fire. This is at the lower end of Piccadilly near Hyde-Park, and is for the Benefit of his Widow, and will be shown 4 Nights, and no longer this Season.

Soot on the 24th Instant, one Tye Perriwig, by Mr. Ambrose Reason, Perriwig-maker, in Ave Mary-lane: The Owner describing it, and paying the Charges, may have it again.
